ESSAY QUESTION

It is claimed by some that computers increase human potential while others believe them to be a hindrance.

Discuss some of the arguments for and against the advancement of computers.

Operations such as obtaining a refund or changing a ticket tend to be fairly straight forward without the aid of a computer. In an office very hour in sending a set of documents to use of a large family as looking at a ment of other goals in the such as being healthy and socially integrated. However, it would be simplistic to say that computers have a

Which activity or resource did you find most useful and why?

“PDF information sheets as they can be easily printed and referred to while writing. The results of a quiz are more likely to be short lived.”

“The quiz because it was fun!”

“PDF – I need short and concise information to learn, not long PowerPoints”

“PDFs and quizzes combined, sort of like a comprehension.”

“Quizzes interspersed within information sheets as you learn the rules for writing and then see if you understood what you just read.”

Your feedback for us

Have you used the Writing Centre resources?

- No – because no one else mentioned it!
- Students only use what lecturers tell them to

What do you think is the biggest barrier to asking for support?

“I’m a small fish in a big pond. If I’m on my own, I feel that I am the only one struggling and everyone else is getting on with it OK.”
