

BALEAP PIM: From EAP Teacher to EAP Educator

Although there is a lot of support available to those transitioning into EAP from more General English teaching, very little support is available to those EAP practitioners working or wanting to work with other teachers. Working with other teachers may involve observing on a summer school, preparing and delivering a series of workshops as part of a teacher education programme or mentoring and supporting teachers new to EAP.

This PIM will provide a space to share ideas and best practice including practical ideas, workable approaches and useful methods of working with other teachers. This event will be of interest to Senior Teachers, DOSs, Teacher Trainers and Educators and indeed anyone who works with or is planning to work with other teachers in an EAP context.

We welcome papers in a variety of formats (including 30-minute presentations with 10 minutes for Q&A, 40-minute workshops and poster presentations) relating to the theme of supporting and working with other teachers. We also welcome 20-minute recorded presentations and 40-minute, live-streamed workshops from colleagues who cannot attend the event. Presentations can be individual or joint.

The event will be delivered in-person with some plenaries and workshops live-streamed.

We welcome proposals from teachers, teacher trainers, teacher educators, lecturers and tutors who have experience of or an interest in working with or supporting EAP teachers. We are particularly interested in papers giving participants a clear takeaway which can be applied in a variety of contexts.

Areas of relevance include, but are by no means limited to:

- Becoming an EAP teacher trainer/educator
- Transitioning from General English teacher trainer to EAP educator
- Observation and feedback
- Mentoring and coaching
- Planning and delivering workshops
- Designing teacher education programmes
- Formative and summative assessment of teachers
- Creating online content for teachers
- Current practice and future directions

The event will take place in-person at the University of Sheffield from 9:30am to 4:30pm on Saturday 12 November 2022.
